

LET'S GO

[gear]

Mind Games to Go

Even when it's too tight for your little one to stretch his legs—like in the backseat or on a plane—there's always room for brain flexing!

1. OLD MAID WITH OTHER GOOSE This version of the classic card game features beloved Mother Goose characters drawn by J. Otto Seibold, one of our favorite illustrators. Exercises memory and matching skills. Chronicle Books, $8.

2. GREEN START PLAY, DRAW, CREATE: TRUCKS A dry-erase board and magnetic play set in one! Includes a variety of reusable activity sheets. Also comes in princess theme; made of eco-friendly material. Innovative Kids, $17.

3. MONSTER HANDS TEMPORARY TATTOOS FOR TALKING HANDS Put on an impromptu puppet show with these wacky and clever temporary tattoos shaped like monster faces. Apply them to your hands and you'll have role-play toys that go everywhere you do! Eight tattoos per box; each one is different.

Available in animal, robot, and dinosaur designs as well. Worldwide, $7.

4. ANIMALS OF OUR WORLD GAME TIME! WRITE AND WIPE ACTIVITY BOOK Great for siblings, this carry-along collection of one and two player wildlife-themed games includes Ice Flow Bingo, Amazing Amazon Maze, Lucky Ladybug Dot Box, and more. Wipe clean to play over and over. Peaceable Kingdom Press, $13.

5. PHOTO FUN PICTURE PUZZLES: CITIES From Munich to Marrakech, explore cities across the globe as you try to pick out the differences in each set of photos. Thunder Bay Press, $10.

6. JOURNEY COMPANIONS Inspired by ancient Mayan beliefs about harmony, these funky handmade bat and jaguar dolls are good luck tokens—and neat open-ended playthings. Wakami; uncommongoods.com, $24 each.